

Community Reading Hub

Wednesday Mornings - 8:15am to 8:45am - School Library

The Community Reading Hub is a space where children come and participate in book readings that focus on building their oral language through 'Conversational Reading' with their parents or another adult. The children are involved in having a conversation about the book in small groups of two children with one adult.

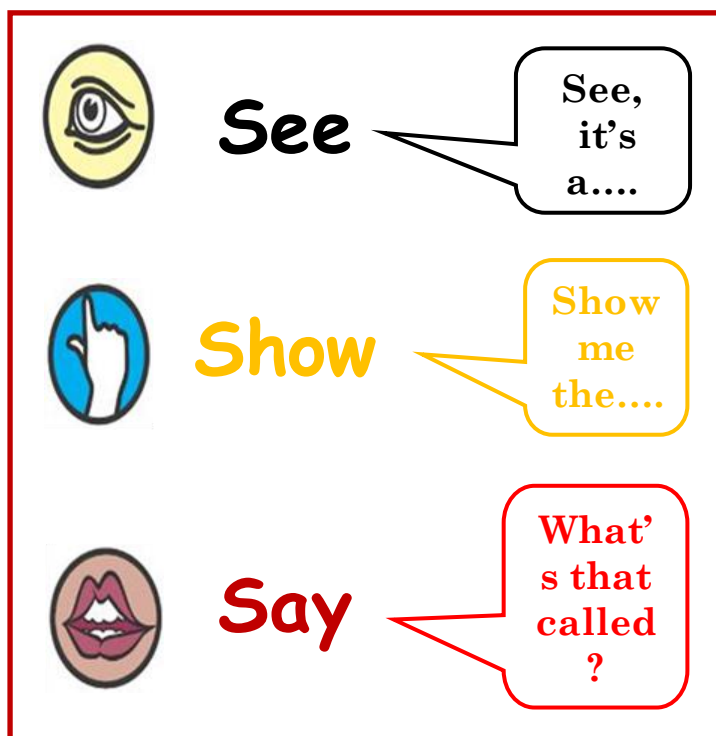

Why: Strong oral language skills promotes success in reading and writing

When: Wednesday morning from 8:15am to 8:45am in the School Library

Facilitators: School staff

You are your child's first and most important teacher.

Reading with your child helps them to learn new words and develop their language skills. One way is to ask them to ...

The diagram is enclosed in a red border and contains three rows of icons, text, and speech bubbles:

- See: An icon of an eye is followed by the word "See" in black. A black speech bubble contains the text "See, it's a....".
- Show: An icon of a hand pointing is followed by the word "Show" in yellow. A yellow speech bubble contains the text "Show me the....".
- Say: An icon of a mouth is followed by the word "Say" in red. A red speech bubble contains the text "What's that called?".
